DEATH OF EX-GOVERNOR CAMPBELL. Within the last few weeks, we have recorded the departure of some three or four of the oldest citizens of this county, of both sexes. It now becomes our painful duty to announce the death of Ex-Governor David Campbell, who died at Mount Calm, his residence in this vicinity, on Saturday last, in the 80th year of his age. He was born in this county on the 7th day of August, 1779, and would have been 80 years old on the 7th of August next. He was the son of John Campbell, Sr., one of the first settlers of Washington county, and for many years Clerk of the County Court. In early life, the subject of this notice received a fiberal education for the times, and at the age of 17 entered the office of his father, the main duties of which he performed till the death of his father, whom he succeed ed in the office, and held it till 1837, when he was elected Governor by the Legislature .-Being familiar with the statutes of the State, 200 are 200 are 400 and remarkably accurate in the management 150 are 7,500 of the details of the office, there have been but few better Clerks in Virginia. Upon the declaration of war, he entered the army of the U. S., with the commission of Major, and was afterwards promoted to a Lieut, Coloneley in the 20th regiment of the army, and served two campaigns on the Canada frontier. In 1814 he resigned his commission, in the army, and was appointed Brigadier General of a division of State troops which the Legislature proposed to raise for the purpose of relieving the militia designed to defend our eastern frontier. Before these troops were organized, peace was declared.

Shortly after the establishment of peace, he was elected to the Senate of Virginia, in which body he represented this District two terms, comprising eight years. Shortly after the expiration of his Senatorial term, he was elected Major-General of Militia for the Western District of Virginia, which post he held until he was elected Governor. He was elected Governor in 1837, and ser-
